To Whom It May Concern

I am writing this as my personal recommendation concerning the character and work ethics I have witnessed from Patrick Domingues's performance as our Certified Inside Sales Technician. During his employ with our company, he has provided superior customer service and has been a trustworthy employee. I only recommend employees that have provided dedicated service and have shown the abilities of providing a professional persona in all their actions. Therefore, I highly recommend that Patrick Domingues be provided the opportunity to be reviewed for whichever position he applies.

Sincerely,
